

2009-10 Quad County Bowling Association Youth City Tournament Highlights

⇒ Hebron's Cory Duck named tournament's Outstanding Bowler

Hebron's Cory Duck, entered the tournament averaging 119, rolled consecutive 3-game series totals of 491, 487, and 425 for a whopping 332 pins over average total. Duck's team, Hebron Jrs, won Division 3 top honors while he also grabbed titles in Division 3 doubles and Division 3 all-events title. Cory also finished a strong 6th in the competitive Division 3.

As the event's outstanding bowler, Cory is awarded a $100 scholarship and trophy.

⇒ Hebron's Keegen Holbrook, Paige Kraushaar capture scratch All- Events titles

On the girls side, Paige Kraushaar rolled a 9-game total of 1,590 to win the scratch all events title and the $100 scholarship. This was Kraushaar's second consecutive title following a runnerup finish in 2007-08.

Boy's scratch all-events champion Keegen Holbrook a 1,935 9-game total which was highlighted by a 258-664 in team event. Holbrook handily defeated fellow Suburban Conference all conference team members Matt Milcarek (1,801), and Jimmy Kraushaar (1,795). Kraushaar had won the previous two scratch all event crowns. Holbrook's efforts also netted titles in the scratch team event, scratch doubles, and scratch singles.

⇒ Super Bowl Kids grab 4 of 5 Singles Titles on last day

The tournament obviously saved the best for last as the Crown Point contingency from the Super Bowl posted championship scores in four of the five singles divisions, headlined by Adam Siefert's 732 in Division 1. Justin Melvin, Kevin Wilson, and Billy Daniels won titles in D2, D3, and D4 respectively.
